

The Evening Herald

WESTFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS.

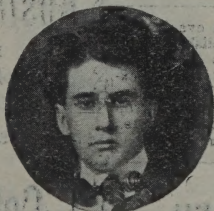

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 5, 1904.

Under the Stars and Stripes !!

In District Court this morning William M. Pringle, John Pringle and Samuel Taylor were given their final naturalization papers. Your hand, gentlemen.

Found Ajar

Yesterday morning the door of F. Cooley's pool room on Elm St. was found open. It is supposed to have been the work of some mis-

MR. CHARLES V. DERRICK.

Violin Virtuoso and Leader of the Orchestral Club, who has just Opened a Tastefully-Appointed Musical Studio in the Gillett Block.

chievous person; no losses have as yet been reported,

On the Road

Mr. Abraham Osborne, general representative of Messrs. Crane Bros., who has been spending the past week in town, started to-day on a business trip through the West. Mr. Osborne is the firm's salesman in both the United States and Canada.

The Herald.

Published Occasionally

EDITORIAL.

On such evenings as it is published, The Herald is distributed free from the news-stands of Messrs. Conner and Smith. Drop in on your way to tea and procure a copy.

Will
Whoop 'Er
Up !!!

There will be rousing Republican rally at Columbia Hall, on the evening of November 4th. Among the

TO-NIGHT!

Eight to Ten,

Austin Bros' Autumn Opening

Music by Orchestra.

Complete Fashion Display.

4.30 P. M. Special to the Herald.

L. C. Coburn

Has just bought of Mrs. H. D. Pease her property on Thomas street. He will take immediate possession.

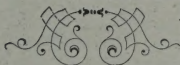

speakers already secured for the occasion are Congressmen Lawrence and Gillett and Representative Harold P. Moseley. This will undoubtedly be the most important rally of the campaign.

HOME-MADE
Doughnuts
AT Atwater's.

Fountain
Pens Several Fine
Makes.
Conner's.

RETURNED FROM ABROAD.

Mr. E. S. Patterson, representative of the Textile Manufacturing Co., arrived from Europe yesterday.

Opening !!

TO-NIGHT

AT

Steiger's !!

Springfield's Famous
Colored Vocal and Stringed Quartette will entertain.

Everybody

Welcome !!!

QUAKER AND HOUSEHOLD

Ranges!

JEWEL
HEATING STOVE !
Guaranteed.

Hearn & Co.

ELM STREET, IN THE VICINITY OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The above thumb-nail sketch is of the starting point for the "Trip around the world," to be made to-night. As we go to press the voyagers are en route; and a merry party they are. Nothing but smooth sailing is expected.

The Elm Press

North Side Park Square, Producers of

Printing Devices of Many Kinds.

Fragments from Ye Local Ginger Jar.

What so rare as a day like Oct. 5, 1904?

It's to-night Eve's daughters will be out en masse. Store openings.

Mr. Reynolds, who entertained at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening, bears a striking resemblance to our late lamented President, Wm. McKinley.

The firing line was active in the woods today.

At this time in the year the "American tourist's" fancy lightly turns to thoughts of our big woodpile down on Academy-street.

The sewer excavations on Arnold street should not prevent people from calling on their friends living on that thoroughfare, who will be pleased to have them drop in at any time.

This has been a dog day on the square. Town dogs, country dogs, blooded dogs and yellow dogs.

Ye LOCAL EVENTS

WELL, WELL, WELL ! !

Last night, down in our alley, Walt rolled up 232, the highest score of the season. Now what d'yer think of that?

He's No SLUGGARD.

Dr. Saunders took an early spin out into the suburbs on his auto-buckboard this morning.

HOLES AND ALL !

Last night, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, when the word was given to advance on the commissary department, the volunteers were legion, and the onslaught on several immense piles of doughnuts was something un-equaled in the annals of warfare.

BEEF ON THE HOOF !

This morning a drove of cattle going along Elm street was stampeded by the sudden appearance of a large automobile. It was a surprise to them.

What are the wild waves saying, sister ???
Never mind !!!! The waves will soon be frozen over, and you'll be asking about that

COAL !
Order book now open.
L. GLADWIN, Jr.

Supplies for Office Men in Great Variety.
W. J. Smith,
Newsdealer.

Will Remain
With Us.

The people of the town will be pleased to know that Dr. Geo. W. Brace has decided to remain in Westfield. It is understood that he will practice in partnership with Dr. E. D. Hutchinson.